

FIVE MEET DEATH IN XMAS HURRICANE ON PACIFIC COAST

Storm Reaches Wind Velocity of Eighty Miles an Hour at Gray's Harbor

SEATTLE, Wash.—After a Christmas eve and Christmas day in which the Pacific coast in the vicinity of British Columbia and Washington was lashed by furious gales, causing a death toll of five and the loss of two ships and temporarily disabling two others, the storm swept section was recovering today with weather conditions considerably improved.

The storm apparently centered about Gray's Harbor, where the wind reached a velocity of eighty miles an hour. At Port Angeles, on the south of the Strait of Juan de Fuca, and at Tacoma and Seattle the wind ranged from forty-five to sixty miles an hour, breaking government weather bureau records in some instances.

The fatalities as a result of the storm, included four members of the Canadian tug Tyeo, which was wrecked on the rocks at Pender Bay, near Victoria, B. C., and this Quartermaster of Aberdeen, Washington, who was killed by current from a fallen electric power wire.

In many circles the gales smashed windows, tore down power lines, throwing entire communities into darkness on Christmas eve, unroofed buildings, interrupted telephone and rail communication and drove many small boats and ships upon the rocks, where they sank.

JAILLED ON LIQUOR CHARGE

WINONA.—Charles Murphy, age 31, of Lewiston, was sentenced to serve 30 days in the county jail and pay a fine of $100 when he pleaded guilty before Judge C. E. Callaghan in district court to a charge of transporting liquor.

The charge was an outgrowth of the discovery by Winona police of two quarts of moonshine whiskey in a abandoned automobile on West Mark street on Nov. 23.

Harry Whitaker, aged 32, a transient, charged with forgery, and Bernard Marion, aged 19, a Winona county farm laborer, charged with theft of an automobile, also pleaded guilty. The court deferred sentence until Jan. 15.

STONE STOPS O'DOWD

PHILADELPHIA, Pa.—Al Stone, Philadelphia light heavyweight, stopped Dan O'Dowd, Boston, in the eighth round of their scheduled ten-round bout on Tuesday when O'Dowd's seconds tossed a towel into the ring to save him from further punishment. Stone fled from the start and gave the Boston boxer a beating. O'Dowd weighed 159 pounds and Stone 177.

NATIONAL MEN AND AFFAIRS

WASHINGTON, D. C.—The old newspaper associates of the late Harvey L. Wilson, for years the Washington correspondent of the Richmond Times before he became chief owner of the Norfolk Ledger-Dispatch, always recall at this time of the year the dispatch Mr. Wilson sent to his paper on a Christmas eve long ago.

Affairs of one sort or another, perhaps the crush of Christmas shopping, perhaps the flowing hospitality of the olden days, had kept the correspondent away from his office all of the day. He came in rather late at night and found his faithful office boy at his post of duty.

"What's going on?" he quired the correspondent.

"There doesn't seem to be any news tonight," replied the boy. Then to the boy's amazement his chief began to turn out "copy." And he sent a dispatch which lives today. It was entitled: "There is No News Tonight," and thus it ran:

"From the night before Christmas and from the neighboring church the grand hymn, 'Tis the Birthday of the King' comes up from the rehearsal choir and reaches the office of the Times with its sacred melody. There is no news tonight for the story of the people today began while shepherds watched their flocks by night and the angelic chorus of 'peace on earth, good will to men' made music for the years and, happily, for us, both last night beyond the inspiration of man, too pure for the touch of a word and too sacredly sweet for the pen of a poet."

There is no news tonight for 'tis the throbbing of the heart and not the intellectual grandeur of the head upon the throne tomorrow. The future is guided by one golden thread which connects life to its loved ones gone before, while the past is linked to a thousand strings which vibrate as the heart and food the soul with melody new to any single heart, yet unheard by any other.

"There is no news tonight for the director and confusion of the noisy world beyond is lost in the tumult which recollection recalls and upon which reminiscences ride to the guarded doors of the heart."

"There is no news tonight for the fancied scenes of the future and of old and confederate are clouded by brilliant floods of the past, which pour their light upon the pictured gallery which time has hung upon the painted walls of memory."

PRIEST DIES CARRYING CHRISTMAS GOODIES TO ORPHANAGE IN ALASKA

NOME, Alaska.—By the Associated Press.—An Eskimo mauling 75 miles in two days to Nome Monday that the Rev. P. J. Rupert, S. J., pastor of St. Joseph's Roman Catholic church in this city, had yielded his life to the cold while trying to take oranges, apples and Christmas greetings cards to the Hot Springs orphanage, near the Pilgrim river, north of here.

Dog Protects Body

Over Father Rupert's body, when it was found eight days ago on the bank of the river, four miles from the orphanage, stood Mink, the leader of his dog team. Mink furiously repelled those who came to carry his dead master to the orphanage and had to be captured first.

Search for Father Rupert had been started when one dog appeared at Iron Creek, fifteen miles from Hot Springs, soon after another arrived at the orphanage. Father Rupert, who won the love of the north by the way he worked for others, without thought of himself, in an influenza epidemic that wasted the Eskimos and took many whites in this district several years ago, was buried on Wednesday at the orphanage.

Dogs Break Away

Carrying his Christmas cheer for 50 persons, including sisters and brothers of the orphanage at the institutions, Father Rupert was continuing his journey alone from Duffy O'Connor's roadhouse, which is on the route to Hot Springs from Nome. It is believed that reindeer frightened his team.

Indications on the trail were that Father Rupert had followed the road to the orphanage for two miles after his dogs broke apart, and, that growing over-weary, he left the stormy trail six miles from the orphanage, and went into the brush on the Pilgrim river. A temperature of thirty degrees below zero was prevailing in that region. Father Rupert seemed to have lain down to rest. He had taken off his parka, or fur hood, folded it neatly and clasped it behind his body and one of his arms.

with a capacity of 1,000 gallons and a still with an estimated capacity of 200 gallons.

Another said to have been operated by Bab Isom included seven mash vats of 100 gallons capacity each and a 200 gallon capacity still. Moonshine was found at each of the places, officials said.

The cemeteries thus visited included those at Belleau Wood, Soissons, Nesles, Romagne, Montfaucon, Pricourt, Soissons, Suresnes, and Waerghem, Belgium.

WILL HONOR 25TH RADIUM BIRTHDAY

PARIS.—Miss Marie Curie, working with her husband, Prof. Pierre Curie in their modest laboratory in Rue L'Honore, made her momentous discovery of radium 25 years ago Wednesday. DESTROY COLD GERMS SPREAD IN THE FAMILY

Dish Towels and Family Towels Carry Cold Germs Through the Family, Says Expert

MADISON, Wis. The dish towel is the most common carrier of cold germs in the family, according to Dr. Freda M. Bachmann of the University of Wisconsin.

Other carriers of germs are glasses, cups, and drinking water. While carrying germs, these items are used by several persons and are not kept clean. From the towel, the germs may pass to the rest of the family, may pass to the next cold coming through the door.

Dr. Bachmann says that germs are carried on your fingers, on your nose, on your mouth, and on your eyes. The towel is used to wipe your face, your nose, and your mouth. It is also used to wipe your hands. The towel is then used to wipe the face, nose, and mouth of other family members. NAVY UNABLE TO
GET MEDICAL MEN FOR THE SERVICE

WASHINGTON. — Graduates of medical, dental, and pharmaceutical schools are finding the opportunities of civil life so attractive that the medical department of the navy is having increased difficulty in getting suitably trained personnel for its work.

Surgeon General E. R. Stitt, in his annual report made public today declares that despite an intensive campaign during the year including the sending of 12,000 personal letters to young doctors, it was not possible to keep the medical corps up to its authorized strength. "It is apparent," Dr. Stitt said, "that the inducements offered by the navy are not sufficient to attract the young physician. It seems therefore that some legislative action will be necessary in the near future if the medical corps of the navy is to be recruited up to the strength for which appropriation was made by congress, or even if the vacancies occasioned by resignation, retirement and death are to be filled." Health conditions generally in the navy during the fiscal year were "better than average," the report said. The death rate of 3.23 per 1,000 was "the lowest the navy ever had," and admissions to the sick list also were unusually low.

FRENCH MILITARY
ANXIOUS TO SEE
PERSHING'S BOOK

Wonder What Account He'll Give of Relations With their Army

PARIS.—By The Associated Press.
—French military circles are somewhat anxious as to what General Pershing will say in his book telling the story of his experiences in France during the war. The General's purpose in coming to France on his present trip is understood to have been to get complete information on certain details necessary for the accuracy of his work, which will portray the activities of the American expeditionary forces in Europe.

Will He Take Off Lid?
The higher political world of Paris is wondering whether the American Clemenceau, Marshall Foch, General Pétain and others for some months during the middle part of his career in France just as the American army was preparing to go into action, before July 1918.

The discussions referred to grow out of the insistence of the French general staff that the American units should be distributed and incorporated into the French and British armies and should not be organized into an army as such, with an independent general staff and upon equality with the other allied armies operating on the western front.

Mouse-trap Made a Fortune
The little round, red mouse trap that every one is familiar with is a simple yet ingenious device, familiar to every household. Mr. Mouse takes his head through a round hole to get the scrap of cheese that smells inviting; his first nibble releases a trigger, and he is garroted.

That little contrivance was the invention of a New England man, Anthony G. Davis, of Watertown, Conn., who patented it in 1869. He made a large fortune by it. The patent, of course, ran out long ago, but at the present time mouse traps of this pattern are manufactured by millions in Connecticut and Massachusetts.

Many Notable Names Confuse An English woman who had just obtained her commission as justice of the peace was very much puzzled when she heard so many historical names being called out when a group of men came up for licenses.
Among the names called were "The Duke of Wellington," "Prince Blin-cher," "King Charles I," "Lord Nelson," "Queen Victoria," and "The King of Bohemia." Then she suddenly realized that all publications coming for licenses are called by the signs of their houses and not by their names.

Most Expensive Private Car
The most expensive private Pullman car in the world has just been completely overhauled at the Piedmont & Northern shops at Greenville, S. C. It is owned by J. B.
Duke, the tobacco magnate, and was used by President Woodrow Wilson and his secretary of the treasury, W.
G. McAdoo, during the World war.
The original cost of the car was about $175,000, nearly twice the average cost of private cars that are being built by the Pullman company.

Many Canes Forgotten
More than 300 walking canes and umbrellas are taken daily to the lost property department of Scotland Yard, London. Thousands of them are never reclaimed but they remain there for the claimant who may turn up even after several years. Recently an American jokingly asked if the officials had heard of a cane he had left in a taxi cab in 1920. In two minutes the missing stick was handed to him.

Mosul Or Nineveh?
Quite some agitation has arisen in British trade circles for the change in the name of Mosul in Mesopotamia.
Turkey, back to Nineveh of Biblical history. Mosul stands very near to the ruins of Nineveh and some authorities maintain that it stands on the site of Nineveh's western suburbs only a mile or so from the site of the "bloody city" which Jonah saved and Nahum cursed.

LENROOT WANTS NATIONAL PARK IN DOOR COUNTY

Would Set Aside Point of Land First Sighted by Father Nicolet

By RAYMOND N. TIMMONS
WASHINGTON.—Wisconsin would have a national park to be known as Nicolet National Park under a bill introduced in the Senate by Senator James L. Lenroot.

The proposed park is located in Door County, has a total area of 1,000 acres and is already government owned. It is now classified as an abandoned military reservation.

The government has owned the land since September, 1897 and it is under the control of the War Department, a stone quarry on it having formerly furnished stone for river and harbor, but during the last ten years only a limited amount of stone has been removed.

The tract lies at a point overlooking the waters of Green Bay at one of its narrowest points. It was at this point, Senator Lenroot explained, that Jean Nicolet must have stopped in 1634 and it is known positively that Father James Marquette stopped at this place October 24 on a visit to the Indians of Wisconsin.

Senator Lenroot today explained that he abandoned stone quarry of the area for one of the most beautiful parks in the United States. "It is in easy access of millions of people and that its location is backed by the entire state of Wisconsin."

The Wisconsin State explained that the scenic sweep of water, unspoiled shore line, headlands, coves, and sandy varieties of hills and country forest are unequalled anywhere in the United States.

There is now no national park in Wisconsin. Lenroot said and none east of the Indians, except in Maine. The proposed Nicolet Park is located on a tract of land from St. Louis and adjacent through connection with a lake which the park, extends to the water front of it. Approximately 5000 acres of land, a month pass over the water front of it. Hearing, bathing and fishing facilities he described as unsurpassed.

FARMER JAILED AS CHILD SLAYER

FARGO, N. D.—J. F. Holmes, a farmer living near Sentinel Butte, was arrested Saturday on a charge of murdering the infant child born to his 12-year-old daughter, April 15, 1925, according to a story published in the Fargo Forum here. According to the story, Holmes was arrested on complaint of his wife whom the farmer had sued for divorce. Attempts will be made to locate the body of the child this week, according to the Fargo story.

WIT EVIDENCE STOLEN

RICHMOND, CENTER, Wis.—A suit was made on the sheriff's ghost seen in the county jail and nine gallons of evidence was stolen. In this case a local anti-Volstead spirit, known as the "ghost room."

Much of the liquor was held as evidence against bootleggers and its absence makes prosecution difficult, if not impossible.

The sheriff had the only key to the cell, but the door was found wide open.

NMAS ON TRAINS

BAKERSFIELD, Calif.—Hundreds of anti-mas trains are being run in California, Texas and other states. These are called "anti-mas trains" and they are run by the anti-mas league. They are run on Christmas Eve and Christmas morning. They are run to the observation cars and Santa Claus was on every train to distribute presents to the little children.

FIRE DESTROYS WAREHOUSE

PIERRE, S. D.—Fire destroyed the office and warehouse of the Allen Oil Company here, inflicting a loss of $25,000, it is estimated. The property is partially covered by insurance.

MOVIES

"POTASH AND PERLMUTTER"

You do not have to buy a fashion magazine or consult a modiste to learn what next season's styles in women's wear are going to be. All you have to do is to pay a visit to the Rivoli Theater this week and see "Potash and Perlmutter." The engagement will end on Saturday.

As every one knows, the story is centered in the New York garment trade, where the styles for the country are originated. Montague Glass, story called for the appearance in the picture of more than twenty living models, and Director Ludwig, obtained them from the establishments of the New York modistes who enter to the wealthy residents of that city. In the production the models wear suits, coats, wraps and dresses of such an advanced style that they will not be seen on the street for another season.

STRAND TODAY

One of the attractions hooked to be shown at the Strand Theater is "Love in the Dark," the new Metro photoplay starring the vivacious Viola Dana. Those who have seen the photoplay pronounce it an extraordinary production and one of the most enjoyable comedy-dramas of the present season. It is certainly a highly excellent motion picture, and in it the interest never lags. Miss Dana fits into the part of the leading character excellently. Throughout the acting is of a high order.

The cast supporting Miss Dana includes Cullen Landis, Arline Pretty, Edward Connelly, John Harron, Bruce Guerin, Margaret Mann and Charles West.

"WHY WORRY"

"Why Worry," the new bill of the Beach-Jones Stock Company at the Majestic Theater for four days starting tonight, is a bright, snappy comedy of life in New York city, giving Miss Siree a part full of "pep" and with a laugh in nearly every line. As Connie Martin, a stenographer of the lower East Side, she meets and falls in love with an aristocratic young gentleman living on Park Avenue. The difference in their social stations, positions and education forms the basis of a plot brand new, and showing that "Love will find a way."

The supporting cast are all seen at their best with Gay Beach, Forrest Smith, Adelaide McInerte and Dudley Miller carrying the bulk of the work.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of chronic coughs and colds, bronchitis, asthma, catarrhal bronchitis and other forms of throat and lung diseases, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or the flu. GIRL UNCONSCIOUS 9 DAYS IS IMPROVING

IOWA CITY, Iowa.—Ethel E. Kaseel of Iowa City, 18-year-old University of Iowa student, is in a hospital here and has been unconscious for nine days, despite attending physicians' statement that she is improving.

Nine days ago the girl fell backwards from an automobile which was rounding a corner and suffered a concussion of the brain. She was picked up unconscious and has never regained complete consciousness since.

She has begun to regain control of her body, and once sat up in bed. However, her brain cells which control her thinking and perception, according to physicians, have not regained their normal state. The girl answers question with a "yes" regardless of what is asked.

Physicians are unable to account for her condition but are they able to venture a prediction on the length of time the "subconscious" condition will continue.

STORE IS ROBBED

PRAIRIE DU SAC, Wis.—Thieves early on Monday entered the Conder-Stoepphorst dry goods store here, rifling the safe of approximately $2,300 in Liberty bonds, cash and checks. Bonds comprised about $1,500 of the haul. The robbers left no clew. An explosion caused by blowing open the door of the safe with nitroglycerine, was heard by nearby residents.

ARBUTUS BLOOMING

PARK FALLS, Wis.—The unprecedented mildness of the present season is strikingly attested by the fact that trailing arbutus is beginning to bloom in the north woods. Motoring parties to Springwood lake, west of this city, picked quantities of the fragrant blossoms on Sunday. Usually at this time the northern woods are covered with a heavy mantle of snow. A robin was seen here this week, and willow and lilac bushes are budding.

STEAMER SAILS WITH GRAIN

FORT WILLIAM, Ont.—The American steamer C. O. Jenkins left this port with 292,000 bushels of grain, the last freighter to sail this season and the first, according to available records, to get away with a cargo of grain as late as Christmas eve. It was bound for Tientsin. Although October weather still prevails on this shore of Lake Superior, the departure of the Jenkins officially closed the season for grain shipments.

G. N. CONDUCTOR BURIED

DULUTH, Minn.—The funeral of John Keppel, aged 56, one of the oldest conductors in the service of the Great Northern railway, was conducted here. The local lodge of Elks, Order of Railway Conductors and Knights of Columbus had charge of the funeral. Mr. Keppel was for many years a resident of St. Cloud before being transferred to Superior in 1898 and to this city in 1919.

CONVICTED IOWAN APPEALS

CEDAR RAPIDS, Iowa.—Notice of an appeal in the case of the government against W. A. A. Cooper of Dubuque, was served on Guy P. Linville, district attorney, here. Cooper brothers were convicted of conspiracy at Dubuque at the May term of court in connection with their income tax payments and were fined $10,000 each. The appeal will be heard in the circuit court at St. Louis.

QUEER BIRD KILLED

MARINETTE, Wis.—A fowl, unique in this vicinity, was brought down by Jacob Wittig near his cottage on the bay shore. The fowl, which was flying with three geese, has peculiar markings of black and white and possesses characteristics of both geese and duck. The bird resembles most a Canadian brant, according to ornithologists, and there is reason to believe that it is an individual type of some established species and not an accidental cross type.

HUNT SAILOR IN SHEBOYGAN SHOOTING

MANITOWOC, Wis.—Local police have been asked to search for William Leunow, former member of the crew of the Goodrich liner Florida, who is wanted at Sheboygan in connection with the holdup and shooting of Otto Pfeiffer, saloonkeeper. A charge of robbery and attempted murder will be lodged against the sailor.

Leunow, Sheboygan police say, and a companion named Wilson were hangers-on at the Calumet saloon which is owned by Pfeiffer, and were seen there before the shooting and robbery took place.

He is about 27 years old and has sailed on the lakes for several years, being particularly well known in Milwaukee and Manitowoc. He has served one prison term, authorities say.

$6,000,000 GOLD MINE REVENUE

LEAD, S. D.—Six million dollars is the revenue from the 1,750,000 tons of ore that are mined annually at the Homestake gold mine here, according to officials of the mine. To mine this ore, according to officials, 1,554,147 pounds or 3,108,234 sticks of dynamite are used every year.

HASKELL INDIANS DEFEAT OLYMPICS IN COAST GAME

Both Scores Made in Opening Period; Indians Win by Goal Kick, 7 to 6

LOS ANGELES, Cal.—Playing aggressive football in the opening two periods, the Haskell Indians of Lawrence, Kas., defeated the Olympic club of San Francisco in the Christmas day football game played at Washington park, 7 to 6.

Both scores were made in the opening period, and the Olympic club touchdown came as a result of bad football on the part of the Indians. Early in the first period Haskell took the ball down the field on a series of off tackle plays and line thrusts, with the Levi brothers doing most of the ball carrying.

The work of Indian linemen was pretty to watch as they opened holes and finally Capt. John Levi drove through left tackle for a touchdown. Carpenter kicked the goal.

Play Stupid Football

At this stage of the game it looked as if the Redskins would win easily, but Indian rooters were sadly mistaken. The Olympic club elected to kickoff following the Indian's score. For some unknown reason, the Redskins permitted the ball to go over the goal line and made no effort to recover it. The Olympic club, composed of former college stars well up on rules, tore down the field and finally Mackles fell on the oval for a touchdown. It was stupid football on the part of the Lawrence boys.

The try for point was missed and the period and half ended with Haskell leading, 7 to 6. Olympic club was unable to gain any ground from scrimmage. All its gains were made by forward passes and in the final period they completed some dandy passes and came close to scoring. At a time when it looked as if the San Francisco club had the Redskins on the run one of their passes was intercepted by Capt. Levi and time was called shortly afterward.

Weather Hot, Crowd Small

While the Olympic club was strong defensively, Haskell played mightily poor football by attempting forward passes in its own territory with only a one point lead, and it looked as if the Indians wanted to give the game away and tonight Coach Dick Hines has aged several years, because it is not the sort of game he teaches.

Generally speaking, it was a well played game, but only a small crowd turned out. The weather was so warm that most of the populace of this city who like football took to the beaches, while many others attended the opening of the racing season at Culter City track.

ITALIAN HEAVYWEIGHT BOXER IS PLANNING RETURN TO THE UNITED STATES; REGARDED AS A COMER

BY SPARROW MCGANN
(Special Correspondent, Tribune)

NEW YORK.—Now that it seems certain Eranio Spalla, the Italian heavyweight, is going to return to this country with the backing of a sten-torian ballroom, a word or two concerning this alleged champion of Europe will be in order.

Spalla, then, is a fine looking Italian who came to this country two or three years ago and hung around Newark, working out in gymnasiums and occasionally fighting. He was very quick to pick up things and such clever fighters as Charley McVie and Young Bob Fitzsimmons were willing to show him tricks of the trade.

The consequence was that he developed more than a fair knowledge of boxing, and in the gymnasium he looked to be as clever as any of them. In fact as a gymnasium brawler he came to be quite impressive. It was when he went into the ring against rugged Irish raters that he did not appear so good.

His Best Fight

The best fight the writer saw him go through was one with Italian Jack Herman two years ago, when he stopped his fellow Neapolitan in nine rounds. But of course, Herman is by no means a good heavyweight. He rates well in the third class, as Firpo and other men who have met him have demonstrated.

As for Spalla, he showed signs of being able to develop into a good hitter, and if he had been in this country in the past fifteen months instead of Europe, he might have sized up by now as a good second rater. That is, he would have, had he controlled his capacity whenever he saw a sign of food.

Like Firpo, Spalla is an artist with the knife and fork—that is to say, he is an artist so far as making these implements move rapidly is concerned. These foreigners do not seem to realize that in this climate one cannot eat and drink as one does in other climates.

Nick Kilne, who probably will manage Spalla, may be able to make him out down on his fish and soup and spaghetti stuff and if so he may be carried along until he gets into the ring against some real performer. He is a likely young man and always willing to take advice, so perhaps his manager will not have the tough sailing that Siki's manager for instance is having.

As for Siki, if anyone gets him into the ring so long as his money lasts he will be a wonder. To put it mildly, Siki's normal condition these days is one that might colloquially be described as performed. His great ambition is to dance. Senegalese war dances before an admiring crowd and to tell how his father and mother were originally cannibals and how many missionaries they consumed in their heyday.

He's Different

Siki fervidly admits he has not inherited their taste in this direction, but is not displeased at stories going about that he placed his pet lion hors de combat by biting him. Johnny Dundee, in the opinion even of his friends, should begin to think of retiring from the ring. His fight against Jack Bernstein was taken to mean that this rugged little brawler is burning out. The decision in his favor against Bernstein is regarded as one of those funny things, and those who really like the featherweight champion believe he ought to retire with his title and let the younger fellows go to it.

showed unusual ability, he began to be a much-talked-about athlete.

The world series games in baseball are no better than any other ball game played during the regular season, yet from a sporting spectacle they demand national attention and play to capacity crowds. It is the prominence of the event that attracts.

The same truth holds good in football. When Yale meets Harvard or Princeton, the prominence of these institutions make the event one of national importance. If a certain player makes a remarkable showing in one of these big games he immediately becomes a nation-wide hero because of the prominence given his deeds. In a meeting between two small college teams, some certain player possessing unusual ability might star to even greater advantage than the big-game hero, yet have his efforts go practically unnoticed.

Under such existing conditions it is only natural that many a star worthy of recognition will be overlooked in the shuffle. Invariably it is the small college star who gets the worst of the ratings.

One of the best quarterbacks of the year is Richeson of Yale. Down at New Haven they insist he is the best quarterback that has directed a Yale eleven since the days of Tad Jones. Richeson came to Yale from Tulane university at New Orleans. Prior to his entry into eastern college football, Richeson had starred at Tulane. In all probability the Richeson of Tulane was just as good a football player as the Richeson of Yale. Yet Richeson, while at the southern institution, never broke into the headlines of the most All-American selections are not leading metropolitan dailies. However, a fair rating of the country's best moment he entered Yale, and players.

Milstead of Yale is rated as one of the greatest tackles of the year; he is sure to get much consideration as an All-American candidate. Milstead has been a rover. He began his career at dear old Wabash. The little Indiana college always turns out great teams. While at Wabash, Milstead no doubt performed as brilliantly as he has at Yale, yet Milstead of Wabash would never have received the columns of praise that has been slipped to Milstead of Yale.

SANTA UNIFORM GETS AFIRE; LOCAL MAN IS BURNED

Durward Lewis, Burned About Head and Wrists at West Avenue M. E. Church
PLAYING Santa Claus for the Christmas exercises at West Avenue Methodist church Tuesday night, Durward Lewis, 1621 Main street, narrowly escaped serious injury from burns when his Santa uniform caught fire just before the exercises were to begin.

Lewis sustained burns about his head and wrists, but the heroic work of Arthur Renner, who rushed to his aid and tore the coat from his body prevented serious burns.

The big gathering in the church room became at once a panic stricken and rose to its feet as the figure in flames dashed out into the open, making an effort to combat the quickly spreading flames about his body.

Lewis had been assigned a leading part in a Christmas play, and despite his injuries, took his part in all the exercises. His uniform took fire while he was charring some cork, it was said, before the program began.

WET LEADER IS CANDIDATE FOR SUPERIOR MAYOR

MADISON, Wis.—State politicians will watch with interest the race for the mayoralty of Assemblyman Sixtus Lindahl at Superior.

Lindahl, serving his first term in the assembly last session, became one of the best known figures in that house. He was one of the most avowed wets of the session.

Lindahl is running for the mayoralty with the claim that his record in the legislature entitles him to uniform support.

Superior is under the commission form of government with the mayor's term for six years. Fred Baxter, former state senator, is the present mayor of Superior.

BRINGING UP FATHER

KENTUCKY HOLIDAY BATTLES RESULT IN FOUR DEAD; 2 HURT

Shooting Affray Kills Deputy and Posse Shoots up a Village

HAZARD, Ky.—Perry county's toll from Christmas shootings today stood at four dead, one in a dying condition from bullet wounds and a sixth man in a serious condition in a hospital here. Those killed were William Smith, deputy sheriff; a man named Ray; J. D. Matthews, a barber, believed to have come here from Louisville or Lexington, Ind.; and John Richmond, a negro. Jerry Dunn is thought to be fatally wounded and the condition of Dennis Phillips is serious.

Deputy Smith was killed Christmas eve in a pistol fight at the home of Phillips, near Hazard, where the officers had gone to quell a disturbance. Phillips wounded Smith, escaped, but later surrendered. Minute reports of Smith's death reached here and deputies John Smith, Davidson and James Wirt started to Phillips' home.

As the trio of deputies passed through Karlesburg, a fire cracker was said to have been exploded at their feet. Believing they had been fired upon the officers were said to have dropped a volley into a store operated by Dan. A bullet passed through the storekeeper's body and struck Matthews, killing the latter. When firing ceased a survey of the building disclosed the body of Ray. Richmond, the fourth man slain, was killed Christmas day. James Workman was reported to have killed him with a shotgun when the victim attempted to enter Workman's home after the latter had told him to stay away.

Makes a Family Supply of Cough Remedy

Really better than ready-made cough syrups, and saves about 75% Easily and quickly prepared.

If you combined the curative properties of every known "ready-made" cough remedy, you probably could not get as much real curative power as there is in this simple, home-made cough syrup, which is easily prepared in a few minutes.

Get from any drugstore 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex, pour it into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with syrup, using either plain granulated sugar syrup, clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, as desired. The result is a full pint of really better cough syrup than you could buy ready-made for three times the money. Tastes pleasant and never spoils.

This Pinex and Syrup preparation gets right at the cause of a cough and gives almost immediate relief. It loosens the phlegm, stops the nasty throat tickle and heals the sore, irritated membrane so gently and easily that it is really astonishing.

Alcohol's use will usually overcome the ordinary cough and for bronchitis, croup, hoarseness and bronchial asthma, there is nothing better.

Pinex is a most valuable concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, and has been used for generations to break up severe coughs.

To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for "2 1/2 ounces of Pinex" with full directions, and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

STAGE MANAGER TAKES HIS FIRST GOLF LESSON XMAS

A week ago when the Beach-Jones Stock company arrived in the city to start their engagement at the Majestic theater, William Kriesel, the local stage manager, met the company at the Milwaukee depot. He was very much disgusted when he saw Messrs. Beach and Jones alight from the train carrying golf bags. "For the love of Mike," said Bill, "have you guys started playing cow pasture pool?"

The conversation drifted to the subject of weather. Kriesel maintained that a show storm was in sight. Mr. Beach claiming that the weather would be good until New Year's day. The outcome was that Bill agreed to play a game of golf on Christmas day providing there was no snow on the ground.

Bright and early yesterday morning Beach and Jones, in company with William Friese, manager of the Majestic theater, called on Kriesel, demanding he go through with his part of the bargain. After much pressure was brought to bear, he went to the links and played a round. His only remark was, "Oh, boy, if my 'Goose' town' friends ever hear of this I am through in the old neighborhood."
